

LEGION PAPER PRESENTS LATEST CHARITY INITIATIVE Select Artists Contribute Prints to Benefit San Diego Red Cross

NEW YORK, NY (April 18, 2008) -- Legion Paper prides itself on developing papers that meet the industry's highest standards of quality and is equally committed to establishing and maintaining relationships with esteemed artists. The company's latest charitable initiative is a testament to both these missions and of personal meaning to its Southern California office.

In the wake of last year's September 2007 wildfires in San Diego, Legion approached a handful of its most devoted users and friends asking them to share their favorite California-themed landscape images.

After receiving great response, Legion sent paper to participating artists and compiled assortments of six California-themed prints in limited edition Moab Chinle Economy Folios. These four books are now being auctioned online through Ebay's "Giving Works" with 100% of the proceeds donated to raise money for the Glendale, California San Diego Red Cross.

Participating artists include Barbara Bordnick, Chris Conrad, Jim Graham, Douglas Kirkland, Judith Monteferrante and Michael Zide.

Legion Paper invites you to visit <http://cgi.ebay.com/ws/eBayISAPI.dll?ViewItem&item=220224957681> to bid on the prints. Bidding starts at $250.
