FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW COLORS ADDED TO STONEHENGE FAMILY Four new colors created in direct response to growing demand

New York, NY (April 13, 2011) – Legion Paper, the leading supplier of fine art paper in North America, is proud to introduce four new colors to the Stonehenge range of papers: Steel Grey, Polar White, Pale Blue and Kraft.

“The current Stonehenge color palette has existed since we created the papers in 1973, but there has been increasing demand for a cooler grey, a colder white and a washed out shade of blue. As a result we are introducing Stonehenge Steel Grey, Polar White and Pale Blue” said Michael Ginsburg, President, Legion Paper. “The fourth shade, Kraft, was created in direct response to those artists seeking a color similar to a kraft paper bag, but having all the characteristics of the Stonehenge qualities – 100% cotton, acid-free, chlorine-free and neutral pH.”

Manufactured in the USA, Stonehenge is a 100% cotton, 250gsm (90lb cover) paper that was introduced in the early 1970’s and quickly became the number one American fine art paper used by artists in all genres, from colored pencil and silverpoint to pastels and letterpress. Featured in limited edition collections and endorsed by hundreds of artists and organizations, Stonehenge sets the standard for high-quality yet affordable fine art paper.

The four new colors are available in 22” x 30” sheets featuring two natural deckles and two cut edges. Currently in stock in both Legion Papers’ East and West Coast warehouses. For more information please visit www.legionpaper.com.
